Historical Background of India Vision 2020: And Path of Balance of Development.

Dr. Amar Pande.
N.D. Patil Night College of Arts & Commerce Sangli.

Abstract

Employment, Education, utilization of available resource and national development are the main Thrust areas of the India vision 2020 report. Report explains the role and responsibilities of Central, State and Local Governments.

A vision document is neither a plan target or nor a project report. It is an articulation of the desired end results in border terms. A vision is a statement of aspiration and intention; therefore, we recognize the need for determined effort to transform all these potentials into realities.